The second issue of "The Tattler" will be published next Wednesday by members of the, Epworth League.

In order to stimulate recruiting and to find out how many of those eligible to do so are willing to enlist, the Government has decided to send to every householder whose name is on the voting list a blank form which he will be asked to return with a statement of what members in his household have enlisted or are willing to enlist. The giving of this information, however, is not mandatory.

Each form will be accompanied by a letter signed by Premier Asquith, Andrew Bonar Law and Arthur Henderson, president of the Parliamentary Recruiting Committee, in which they state that the number of recruits thus far obtained, though large, is not nearly large enough to meet the nation's requirements, and that in order to maintain complete the new army which it is hoped to throw into the field in a few months, "we shall need all the best the nation can give us of its youth and strength. If we are to repair as far as may be humanly possible, the innumerable wrongs inflicted on our allies; if we are to avoid for ourselves the ill which they have suffered; if we are to maintain for our children all that we hold dear in human and the freedom of our life as a nation, we must fight with the courage and endurance which won for us the struggles of the past."

War News in Brief.

Further disasters have occurred from mines in the North Sea.

General de Wet has dispersed the Government Forces sent against him. General Beyer's forces have been dispersed.

British cruiser Glasgow and steamer Okeana are reported in Straits of Magellan, bound for Falkland Islands.

The German cruiser Emden has been run ashore and burned and the Konigsberg has been bottled up.

The ferocity of the battle on the Allies left wings resumed owing to the lifting of the fog. The progress of the Allies, tho not rapid, is satisfactory.

The Germans have made a proclamation that all Belgians must go back to work, or charitable institutions will be closed.

Advices from South Africa report further rounding up of Boer rebels.

Patriotic speeches were delivered at the Guildhall at the Lord Mayor's banquet by Earl Kitchener, Mr. Churchill, Mr. Asquith, and the French Ambassador. Many notables were present.

The Germans have renewed their offensive in the vicinity of Ypres and Dixmude.

THE PATRIOTIC FUND.

It is generally anticipated that the Patriotic Meeting which is to be held in the Oyen Methodist Church next Thursday will be a rousing success in every way. Considerable interest is being taken in the movement by all local people and a very generous offer has been made by our leading business firm, Messrs. Scott and Co. In connection with the fund, they have decided to set aside the last Saturday in the month as a patriotic day and have generously offered to give 15 per cent. of the total day takings. With this magnificent contribution heading the list no difficulty should be experienced in raising a considerable amount of money. Keep the two dates in mind, Thursday next, November 19th.—The Patriotic Meeting; and Saturday, November 28th. Scott & Co's, Patriotic Day, and make a special effort to be present on both days.

"I shall want more and still more men until the enemy is crushed."—Lord Kitchener.

"... Every man among us, old or young, rich or poor, busy or leisureed, learned or simple, should give what he has and do what he can."—Premier Asquith.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER

However history may assign the responsibility for this war Belgium surely is innocent. She sent no ultimatum and played no game of statecraft. War was simply stuffed down her throat. She had no option of accepting or rejecting it. When the German army crossed her borders war was brought to her whether she wanted it or not. Her only possible choice was either fighting Germany, which violated her sovereignty, or fighting the Allies.

And on Belgium the losses of the war have fallen with terrible force. Her fields have been trampled, her villages burned, her capital occupied; and Germany at once demanded huge money indemnities from her. Belgium has a clear title to the sympathy of civilized mankind.—S. E. P.

| H. H. Garrison | 70.00 |
| J. W. Snel | 2 85.00 |
| John Sanders | 3 37.50 |

Bakken.—That Wood Inspectors Report for Div. No. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6 be accepted and that Mr. Warncke O.K. report for Division No. 1 when it comes in if found correct.

Cottrell.—That the next regular Council meeting be held at Oyen, on Monday, December 28, 1914, at 10:30 a.m., and that we do now adjourn.

J. Howard Alexander, Sec'y-Treas.

Don't forget the dance to-morrow night at the Oyen Billiard Hall.

Mr. Joe Odden returned from his farm last week, after supervising the preparation of 95 acres of land. Mr. Odden is satisfied with the work which was done by Mr. Mike Neville's steam outfit, ten horses and seven men which were kept busy four days.

Mr. B. E. Kelly was presented with a handsome silver cigar case and match box by a few of his friends last night at the Bank chambers.

Send Xmas Parcels to the Men at the Front

A notice from the General Post Office, London, states that "Parcels for members of the British expeditionary force serving on the continent, if addressed, 'Expeditionary Force, care of G. P. O., London,' and sent in mails for London, will be forwarded to their destination."

"These parcels should be prepaid at the rates which were applicable to ordinary parcels for France forwarded via England (see Postal Guide, page 100)."

The British office adds that tobacco and cigars for the troops are admitted to France duty free, which allows of these articles being included in parcels forwarded as above.

Inasmuch as the parcel post has been discontinued in France, no parcels for that country, other than those addressed to members of the expeditionary force, will be accepted for transmission. The rates on parcels are as follows: 1 lb., 40c.; 2 lbs., 48c.; 3 lbs., 56c.; 4 lbs., 74c.; 5 lbs., 82c.; 6 lbs., 90c.; 7 lbs., 98c.; 8 lbs., $1.10; 9 lbs., $1.24; 10 lbs., $1.32; 11 lbs., $1.40.

BECK'S WEEKLY.

Beck's Weekly, edited by Edward Beck, the man who employed the Burns Detective Agents to unearth graft in the Quebec Legislature, and published in Montreal, is a unique publication and one that is growing in favour throughout the country. While devoted, primarily, to the promotion of honesty in the administration of public affairs, it is by no means obsessed of one idea, but is made up every week of clever cartoons and pictures, stories, humorous sketches and a department of intelligent if some what caustic comment on Canadian affairs. Among its contributors are several of the best writers and artists in Canada. It furnishes one of the most appetizing week-end collations of information, discussion and entertainment to be obtained anywhere. The price is 82 per year and the publishers will be pleased to send a sample copy on request. Address, Beck's Weekly, 335 Craig Street West, Montreal.

HOW ARE YOUR EYES?

It is most important question nowadays, for there is an impression that each succeeding generation makes glasses more and more in demand. But it is wise to have advice about the eye-sight, and particularly if one suffers from Headache, most of which are distinctly traceable to eye disorders. I fit glasses that give instant relief to the eyes and the head.

I have arranged to beat the Jewelry Store, Oyen every Wednesday. Remember the day and take advantage of this opportunity to have your eyes attended to! All work is absolutely guaranteed.

FRENCH PRISONERS PERPETRATED

HARROWING TALES TOLD OF INHUMAN TORTURE

Report of the Belgium Commission of Inquiry Gives Details of the Outrages Committed by the German Troops in Louvain—Unthinkable Deeds of Barbarians

The following is a translation of a Belgian Legion of the second report of the Belgium Commission of Inquiry on the violation of the rights of nations and of the laws and customs of war.

To Mr. Carton, a War Minister of Justice.

The commission of inquiry have the honor to make the following report on acts of which the towns of Louvain, the neighborhood and the district of Louvain have been the scene.

The German army entered Louvain on Wednesday, August 18, after having burnt down the villages through which it had passed.

As soon as they had entered the town of Louvain the Germans requisitioned food and lodging for their troops. They went to all the banks of the town, and took possession of the cash in hand. German soldiers made the doors of houses which had been abandoned by their inhabitants, pillaged them, and committed other crimes.

The German authorities took a house in the town of Louvain, the house of the doctor, the vice-rector of the Catholic University, the house of the printer of the city, besides certain magazines and newspapers. The Germans also possessed by the inhabitants, even fenced words, had already been taken to the military hospital, and they placed by them in the Church of St. Pierre.

In a neighboring village, Corbeek, on Wednesday, August 18, a young woman aged twenty-two, whose husband was a German soldier, was the victim of her relations were surprised by a band of German soldiers. The soldiers were with her, took her up in a deserted house, waded she herself in a drained lake, and then she was where she was raped by five soldiers.

In the same village, on Thursday, August 19, a young girl, aged sixteen, was taken from her home by a band of German soldiers. The soldiers took her to a deserted house, waded she herself in a drained lake, and then she was where she was raped by five soldiers.

The Army of Russia

Russia's Supply Men Simply Incapable

It is a noteworthy fact that the future existence of the Russian empire depends on the position of the army.

The Russian army is recruited principally from the peasantry, and from various nomadic races in the interior of the empire.

It is estimated that in all there are about 100 million peasants in the Russian Empire.

They are, however, somewhat ignorant, and are not very intelligent.

When a peasant takes ill only two remedies are available to him.

One is to go to the doctor, and the other is to go to the priest.

The ordinary peasant, the man who is not a doctor or a priest, is not a very intelligent man.

He is a simple man, and he is not a very intelligent man.

He is a simple man, and he is not a very intelligent man.

He is a simple man, and he is not a very intelligent man.

French War Correspondent Describes the Work of the British Troops—Deal Terrible Blows in Battle, but do Not Exhaust

Over the Enemy's Sufferings

In the official dispatches describing the fighting in the British front, it is stated that the British troops have done much to the credit of their arms.

Although newspaper representatives have not been permitted to accompany the troops, some have managed to evade the authorities and their accounts give us an idea of what the soldiers are doing at the front in upholding the British flag.

A French war correspondent, Fleury Lamure, relates the splendid work of the British troops at Mons, when the Allies won a glorious victory.

It was at Mons on Sunday, August 23, that the first outpost engagement was fought, and the British troops, who had only arrived on the scene the same morning, immediately entered the battle without even a moment's rest.

Peaceful British Infantry

It is at this time that when an army is hammered by overpowering forces, the British infantry is not a very intelligent man.

Useful in the Dark

The news that native Indian troops are being recruited for the British line has been received with great interest.

Rural Municipality of Cereal No. 242.

AMENDMENT TO BY-LAW No. 2

Restrain and Regulating the Running at Large and Trespassing of Animals.

2.— "The expression at large or running at large means, without being under control of the owner, either by been securely tethered or in direct or in continuous charge of a herder, or by confinement within any building or any enclosure, or a lawful fence."

3.— "That the word Lawful in Section (2) be struck out."

4.— "That under this By-Law, all animals not the property of the Ratepayers of the Rural Municipality of Cereal No. 242 shall not be permitted to run at large within any part of the Municipality, excepting from, etc., etc."

5.— "That the word 'Municipality' the rest of section be struck out, and this be added—Not permitted to run at large at any time during the year: That the words following after 'charges be paid' in Section nine be struck out and the following be added, viz: Any person claiming any damage for trespass by any animal impounded may at the title of the impounding of such animal, deliver to the Pound-keeper a statement in writing, showing the nature and amount of his demand, and any person failing to deliver such statement at such time shall have no recourse to the provisions of this act as to the collection of damages."

6.— Upon the receipt of such statement the Poundkeeper shall, if the owner of the animal be unknown to him, apply to the Receiver or to any of the Councillors of the Municipality, or to the nearest Justice of the Peace, who is hereby authorized and required to summon three disinterested inhabitants of the Municipality as appraisers, and such three appraisers or any two of them shall, within twenty-four hours after being summoned as aforesaid, view the ground on which the animal or animals were found doing the damage and appraise the damage committed, and the determination of a majority of the said appraisers shall be conclusive as to the extent and amount thereof, and they shall within twenty-four hours after having made the view, give in writing to the Poundkeeper a statement of the amount of the damages assessed by them and said amount shall be the amount to be retained by the poundkeeper from the sale of the animal or animals as appraised damages."

(c).— Each appraiser shall be allowed the sum of $10.00 for the appraisement and the amount of such fee shall be retained by the Poundkeeper out of the proceeds of the sale of the animal or animals, to be paid by him to the appraisers."

That the following be added and constitute Section Ten (10). Any person who commits any of the following offences, shall on summary conviction before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or in default of payment of said fine, be committed to the nearest gaol for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days.

(A).— Wilfully and knowingly lets their animals run at large contrary to the provisions of this By-Law, or

(B).— Resorts, or attempts to resort, to interfere with any animal impounded."

(C).— Destroys or injures, or attempts to destroy or injure any Pound, or

(D).— Drives any animal upon any cultivated land, or to any Stack of Grain or Hay, or upon any Shovel growing Hay, of which he has not ownership or lease, or agreement with the owner.

Done and passed in open Council assembled at Oyen, Alberta, August 28th, 1914.
